London Finds Little to Cheer the Allies in the Precipitate Retreat.

BY ARTHUR S. DRAPER.

ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The defeated Rumanian army in the Dobruja is still in flight before the invading Bulgarians. Though the invading army apparently made no effort to throw troops across the Danube at Cernavoda they have been compelled to fall back. Here the Bulgarians have reached the Teutonic line, but there is little doubt that the Rumanians have the situation at that point well in hand.

On the extreme northern tip of the front, to the south of Dobruja, the Bulgarians failed to hold the enemy, who broke through and seized a dominating position near Charn Dornel. The successful Rumanian operations in the Dobruja and Triolus valleys are important in their possible effects. The Uzi, Oltuz and Triolus sectors are closely linked up in the present fighting. Success in one is very likely to bring victory in all three.

Here, too, the Rumanians are showing a bolder front than elsewhere and apparently are better supplied with guns and ammunition. The outlook for King Ferdinand's forces on their western frontier is brighter than anywhere else on the wide battle line and there is promise of the complete repulse of the invaders before many days.

The effect of such success torn from the enemy in the face of great obstacles is not to be underestimated. With their western border safe from the enemy's grip the Rumanians would be able to take a breathing spell and prepare for renewed efforts to wrench themselves free from the grasp of the Teutons on their northern line. It would be a life-giving tonic to the shattered troops and might easily save Rumania from the fate that is slowly drawing near.

In the Dobruja there is little to cheer the allied cause. The steady, unrelenting pressure of the Rumanian and Russian troops almost presages the evacuation of the entire province.

ROMANIANS ARE BOLDER.

PARIS STRIKE IS SPREADING.

High Price of Food and Low Wages Said to be the Cause.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

PARIS, Oct. 27, 4:35 p.m.—A strike of street car employees, which began in the suburbs of Paris yesterday, is reported to be spreading to the central district. The strike has not yet resulted in the stoppage of the service. The insurgent says the strike is due to the high prices of food and the insufficient wages paid the employees, especially the women, who receive five francs daily.

BORDER ALARM OF BAKER IS POLITICS.

WAR SECRETARY AGAIN SHOWS "REMARKABLE BIAS."

Chairman Wilcox of National Republican Committee Issues Statement in Which Cabinet Officers are Shown Apparently in Collision to Manufacture Votes.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—William T. Wilcox, chairman of the National Republican Committee, issued a statement today in reference to the one of last night by Secretary of War Baker that definite information had been received by the War Department that a bandit attack upon American troops or an American border town had been arranged to take place before election day by "enemies of the administration's policy towards Mexico." Mr. Wilcox stated also to Secretary of State Lansing's declaration that the War Department's statement was not intended as an assault upon the administration's political opponents.

"In view of Secretary Lansing's statement in the morning papers," said Chairman Wilcox, "Mr. Baker is guilty either of amazing stupidity or of a disingenuous attempt to gain votes for Mr. Wilson by misrepresentation. If Mr. Lansing is quoted correctly, he went over to Baker's statement before it was issued, and the Baker statement, therefore, appears to be the joint product of Mr. Wilson's two Cabinet officers.

"There can be little doubt in the minds of any one what this statement designed to accomplish. The careful phrasing of Mr. Baker shows an attempt to make political capital out of what he appears to have regarded as an impending disaster on the Mexican border. This political capital was to be gained by charging that the attempt was to take place between now and election. Other parts of Mr. Baker's statement are susceptible of the same interpretation.

"If, as Mr. Lansing says, Mr. Baker made this statement without comprehending that it was a veiled charge against American citizens, thereby implying that they were traitors, then Mr. Baker has once more displayed the remarkable bias of mind which prompted his statement of yesterday. It is a statement regarding revolutionary soldiers in his speech in Jersey City. If, on the other hand, Mr. Baker deliberately attempted to create political capital out of a national disaster his position is infamous.

Mr. Wilcox added that if the War Department had information in regard to the expected attack, it was the duty of the administration to use every power of the government to find out the guilty ones and punish them."

BAKER "PLOT" CHARGE COLLAPSES OVER NIGHT REPORTS

Secretary of War Hedges When His Mexican Sensation Boomerangs.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 27.—Twelve hours after its first publication the statement issued by Secretary of War Newton B. Baker last night collapsed.

In this statement Baker charged that "enemies of the administration's policy towards Mexico" were arranging a spectacular attack by Mexican bandits on the American troops on the border or on some border town. Today it appeared that the Baker statement was probably founded on the same vivid imagination which caused the Secretary two weeks ago to compare the soldiers of George Washington with the bandits of Mexico. Military authorities declared there was not a scrap of military information in the possession of the War Department to justify the Baker statement and State Department authorities admitted that the information on which the statement was based was necessarily vague and indefinite.

Not only this, but dispatches from the border indicate that representatives of the State Department there have no knowledge of any plot such as that spoken of in the Baker statement.

VIEW OF ADMINISTRATION.

Following the issuance of the Baker statement last night administration officials were not slow to realize that in wording his statement as he did Secretary Baker clearly gave the inference that the plots of which he spoke were being fomented by Americans.

The long-distance operator at Martinsburg, W. Va., is authority for the information that Secretary Baker was delayed after his speech there last night with long-distance telephone calls from Washington, New York and Cincinnati, where the President was yesterday. Although it had been Baker's original intention to go direct to Martinsburg, he changed his plan after one of these telephone calls and returned to Washington today to face a severe grilling at the hands of newspaper correspondents.

The explanation given today by Baker's statement before it was issued, and the Baker statement, therefore, appears to be the joint product of Mr. Wilson's two Cabinet officers.

"There can be little doubt in the minds of any one what this statement designed to accomplish. The careful phrasing of Mr. Baker shows an attempt to make political capital out of what he appears to have regarded as an impending disaster on the Mexican border. FOUR MORE STEAMERS SUNK BY THE GERMANS.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Lloyd's Shipping Agency announces that the steamer Rowanmore has been sunk.

The Rowanmore was a ship of 10,240 tons gross register. She was built at Glasgow in 1909 for the Johnston line for Gulf and South Atlantic cotton carrying trade.

Sinking of the British steamer Huntall by a submarine and the burning of the Norwegian steamer Severa are added to the list of maritime disasters in the war zone by today's Lloyd's reports.

The sinking of the steamer Skop is also announced by Lloyd's.

REPORTS THIRTEEN ARE SUNK, GERMANS SAY.

British Announce that Two of the Kaiser's Destroyers Were Lost.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—At least eleven outpost steamers and two or three torpedo-boat destroyers or torpedo boats were sunk or damaged by a German torpedo-boat squadron Thursday night in the English Channel between Folkestone and Boulogne, according to an official communication issued here. The German torpedo flotilla returned safely to its base without any loss.

The communication says: "Parts of our torpedo forces moved from a German bay Thursday night. Through the Straits of Dover and Calais to the line of Folkestone-Boulogne in the English Channel."

"According to the report of Commander Michelson, at least eleven outpost steamers and two or three torpedo-boat destroyers or torpedo boats were sunk partially or totally near the ports. Some members of the crews who were saved were captured."

"Several other guarding vessels and at least two destroyers were heavily damaged by torpedoes and artillery fire. Also the English port steamer Queen of the South was sunk partially or totally near the ports. Some members of the crews who were saved were captured."

"In the channel near the Farns lightship there was a strikingly active traffic by hospital ships. "Our torpedoes sank safely returned to German waters without any loss."

GERMAN VESSELS DASH INTO STRAITS.

BY ARTHUR S. DRAPER.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—"The Day," long the toast of the followers of Von Tirpitz, twinkled on the horizon today but failed to dawn. During the night ten torpedo destroyers of the Kaiser's own grand fleet mobilized at Zebrugg, under the shadow of the huge Krupp guns that bristle along the Belgian coast. Through the Straits of Dover they dashed and into the English Channel, hitherto the hunting ground only of adventurous U-boats, their mission was to sink some of the transports that carry British troops to the battlefields in France.

One transport carrying no troops, was sent to the bottom. Then the British destroyers engaged the invading squadrons, and the spirited combat that followed two German warships were sunk, a British vessel disabled by a torpedo and run aground, and another British destroyer is still missing. The Kaiser's squadron then was driven off.

This raid, it seems was Germany's reply to the French victory at Verdun, combined with the relentless British pressure on the Somme. It has been expected for a long time and was the first effort to attack the British transport service. But despite the determination with which it was carried out, it failed in all its sought to accomplish.

No troops were lost by the British and the crew of the destroyer sunk were saved. The only loss of life suffered was of the missing destroyer was given today and has been saved with the prospect of saving more.

In view of the attempt today it is worth while to recall that the British have not lost a single life since the war began in transporting troops across the channel. Large numbers of men have been carried across for the army, but all have arrived safely.

And the failure of the German effort is a tribute to the watchfulness of the British navy during the foggy nights—the cycle of which has now begun. Germany has been asked whether Britain was ready to throw back such a German attack. The answer was given today and has been welcomed joyfully throughout the nation.

THE LONDON VERSION.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Ten German torpedo-boat destroyers attempted to raid the British coast channel transport service last night, but the attempt failed, says an official statement issued by the British Admiralty today. Two of the German destroyers were sunk and the others were driven off.

One British torpedo-boat destroyer, the Flirt, is missing. The British statement adds, and another destroyer, the Nubia, was disabled by a torpedo and ran aground. Nine

(DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 27.—Postmaster-General Burleson has recognized officially the faithful work of an ownerless dog at Mt. Carmel, Pa., which has assumed the self-imposed task of guarding the United States mail. The dog follows the parcel-post carrier twice daily on his trips around the town and guards the parcels in the vehicle during the absence of the carrier delivering other parcels, permitting no one to approach them. Mr. Burleson has dispatched a beautiful brass-studded and buckled leather collar bearing a brass plate engraved with the words: "U. S. Mail, presented to Uncle Sam's faithful friend, by Albert S. Burleson, Postmaster-General, October 25, 1916," which will be locked on the dog's neck and the dog's dog tag. It is expected his doggy friend will wear this glistening and officially stamped collar with immediate respect as Uncle Sam's representative.

was so worded as virtually to charge American political opponents of the administration with conspiring with the bandits caused both Secretary Baker and Secretary Lansing today to reiterate the latter's statement of last night that there was no intention to do such a thing. Both said it was impossible to conceive that any American could be involved in such an enterprise and that Mexico now in the United States were responsible for the plot, wishing to embroil the United States and Mexico to the end that the fact of government might be overturned.

In declining to shake public the nature of the information received, it was said at both the state and war departments that to do so would close a valuable channel through which what would be kept on Mexican affairs. The arrest of some individual accused of complicity in the plot, and the fact of government might be overturned.

UNPREPARED TO WAR FOR TRADE.

Hughes Shows Us at Mercy of Commercial Rivals.
Wilson Industrial Preparedness Held Farical.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
ROCHESTER (N. Y.) Oct. 27.—Charles E. Hughes tonight replied to statements in President Wilson's Cincinnati speech, concerning preparations to meet commercial competition after the war.

Mr. Hughes told an audience here that the administration's views reminded him of his views on preparedness in December, 1914, which were afterwards changed, that he considered the anti-dumping provision of the revenue bill, intended to meet the situation, as "farical" and "worse than useless" to protect American workmen, and that, even if the percentage of exports of commodities to supply America was small, it required but very little "to contract or destroy the prosperity of the country."

The nominee addressed an audience that cheered him repeatedly. He told them that as he had been while Governor of New York, he was now and would be in the future, that he was willing to stand or fall by what he believed to be right.

"It was said in December, 1914," Mr. Hughes asserted, "that America was ready; that any suggestion to the contrary was thoughtless. But it is now said with reference to the commercial rivalry that America is far from ready and that we shall not be ready until we have a clearer notion of what we mean."

STATISTICS OF IMPORTS.
Mr. Hughes cited statistics of imports to answer the President's statement that the United States was ready to meet commercial competition after the war.

during the day were very violent on the east bank of the Meuse between Pepper ridge and the Wouver. At noon the French attacked our positions east of Fort Donaumont, but were completely repulsed with heavy losses."

ATTACK BY RUSSIANS.
Russian troops in the district west of Lutsk, in Volhynia, made a heavy attack at midnight on the Austro-German line in the Kievin sector, after prolonged artillery preparation. The attack, the War office announced, broke down before the defensive entanglements.

"The Russians have repeated their attacks along the Shara River, but failed to gain any advantage."

"In the Southern Carpathians there were renewed assaults on the Teutonic lines by the Russians and Rumanians, but here, also, the hostile effort in advance was futile."

The statement reads:

"Eastern war theater, front of Prince Leopold: On the Shara River the Russian attack repeated its efforts, which were repulsed. Storming companies were driven back by the occupants of our trenches."

"Further south at the mouth of the Vedma, Russian reserves captured an advanced Russian position and brought in one officer and eighty men as prisoners."

"Lutsk front: In the sector of Kievin strong Russian artillery fire continued. About midnight an attack ensued, but it broke down before our barbed wire and our fire."

"Front of Archduke Charles: On the southern part of the Carpathian front the Russian attack was repulsed. On the southern part of the Carpathian front the Russian attack was repulsed."

Beach Communities Hold Meeting on Consolidation.

Long Beach Refuses to Join the Project.

Abbot Kinney of Venice Takes Active Interest.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

VENICE, Oct. 27.—Plans were laid today in a meeting of representatives of bay district cities for the formation of an anti-consolidation committee to oppose the absorption of the beach communities to Los Angeles under a city and county government.

The meeting, held in the Venice Grammar School, was presided over by Mayor E. A. Garety of Venice and was attended by officers of Chambers of Commerce and city officials from Redondo, Hermosa, Manhattan, Venice and Santa Monica. Long Beach failed to send delegates for some reason.

A motion was made by Abbot Kinney of Venice that it be the sense of the meeting that the representatives were opposed to a consolidation of the city and county government. This motion was amended to make way for the appointment of representatives from the various cities on the beach to a committee.

The committee was to be organized by the Venice Grammar School, and was to be composed of representatives from the various cities on the beach. The committee was to be organized by the Venice Grammar School, and was to be composed of representatives from the various cities on the beach.

Dr. William H. Dukeman Leaves Estate Worth More Than One Hundred Thousand Dollars, to His Wife and Only Daughter.—In Trust.

Dr. William H. Dukeman, who died last Sunday, had an estate worth more than one hundred thousand dollars, according to the will filed yesterday by Edgar B. Dukeman and Walter F. Hask, being $192,492.75. His will directs his wife, Mrs. Lila Dukeman, to have the residue of his estate, including his real estate, converted into cash. He provides that $10,000 be invested in a residence for his wife, Agnes Dukeman, and his daughter, Leona A. Dukeman, during their lives. The residue is to be placed in trust with his brother, Edgar B. Dukeman, for the benefit of Mrs. and Miss Dukeman.

RELATIONSHIP MIXED.

United States Commissioner Wants to Know How Uncle of Chinese Lad Could be His Father at the Same Time, as the Records Show.

United States Commissioner Hammett spent yesterday trying to discover how Jung Quong Wal, uncle of Jung Quong Chee, could be his father as well. The point arose in deportation proceedings, and at the close of the hearing of a partial list of witnesses he had not determined the question.

Jung Quong Chee is the young Chinese boy picked up by Immigration Inspector Brady at Balboa, some months ago. It is claimed that Jung Quong Wal is his uncle, but a certificate issued in China, when the lad came to San Francisco, indicates that he was coming to the New World "to attend to the business of his uncle, Jung Quong Wal." Additional evidence will be taken.

GRADE CROSSINGS

MANDAMUS SUIT.

ACTION TO SECURE RULING OF SUPREME COURT ON MATTER

Central Development and Other Associations Join in Move to Push Central Terminal and Other Projects—Will Seek New Members.

Within a short time mandamus proceedings will be instituted by various organizations working in conjunction with the Central Development Association, to secure a prompt opinion from the State Supreme Court as to the right of the Railroad Commission to eliminate grade crossings and to order the establishment of a union terminal in Los Angeles. Mandamus proceedings call for an opinion within sixty days.

The first step in the establishment of the terminal is the abolition of grade crossings near Los Angeles was taken by the Central Development Association when it filed a petition with the Railroad Commission of September 15. The commission, after a hearing, decided on the 23rd inst. that it had the power to control such matters but as the abolition of the crossings and the erection of the terminal would call for the expenditure of more than $10,000,000 by the railroad, the commission decided to stay action until the Supreme Court ordered it to proceed.

As it is expected that the Supreme Court will do so, there is every indication that the strenuous efforts being made by the Central Development Association and affiliated organizations, for the doing away with the crossings and for the terminal project, will soon bear fruit.

The Central Development Association yesterday instituted a membership campaign. The organization has headquarters at suit No. 914 International Bank Building.

USES A WAR CLUB.

Women Wage Primitive Fight, One Bearing the Marks of Rough Usage Alleged to have been made by Brown Handle and Gas Pipe.

The story of primitive warfare, in which a regular old African war club disfigured the victim, and hands, teeth and toes were used to advantage, unfolded itself yesterday afternoon before Justice Palmer. Mrs. Lila Coven, colored, was up for assault with a deadly weapon, and when the woman she fought with appeared and the club was produced little further evidence was necessary to bind her over to the Superior Court on a bond of $500.

Mrs. Nellie Williams bore the brunt of the battle. Her head was well plastered with tape and bandages caused by the war club. This consisted of an old broom handle on the end of which was attached a piece of corrugated iron gas pipe. The scuffle, in which several other ladies of the neighborhood of Jefferson and Normandie streets participated, was very lively while it lasted, according to testimony.

Full House.
All the members of the Players' Producing Company, which will put on "Nju" at the Little Theater next Tuesday night, are actors with claim to distinction. Irving Pichel was stage manager of the James K.

of Windsor" at the Criterion in New York. Kirah Markham, who has Orpheum Bluebird.

"The Forest Fire," said to be the highest scenic spectacle ever seen in vaudeville, with its company of thirty players, is headed this way on the Orpheum circuit. Two full carloads of scenery are used.

Compensation Note.
It is said when Edna Mayo finished "The Return of Eve," the picture play which is at Tally's Broadway this week, that as a compensation measure, she plunged into a perfect orgy of gown marketing, resulting in the purchase of forty new dresses.

Children's Performance.
Children's day will be observed at the Palace this morning, with the regular play, "The Return of Eve," from 10 to 12 o'clock. These popular shows are becoming very popular, especially with those mothers who do not allow their children to attend pictures indiscriminately.

Dinehart Buys Blackwood Play.
Allan Dinehart, for the past three weeks one of the featured players on the Orpheum circuit, is about to desert the vaudeville field and join the ranks of the stars of "Nju" at John H. Blackwood's play, "Come Again Smith." The play will be produced under the direction of Coburn Harris, with Dinehart in the leading role, at the Cohan & Harris Theater in New York. It is expected the play will be ready for its New York production early in January.

First Catch Your Congressman.
If you are staging a scene supposed to be in Washington, and want a real Congressman to appear as a "champion" of the people, and can't get one, get the next best thing—a candidate for Congress.
This is what Frank Lloyd, the well-known Fox director, did recently in staging a William Fox picture. He couldn't find a Congressman, so he asked George Clark, the Republican candidate for the Texas Department for the short term, to act the part. Clark donned his high hat and a Federal Albert, and got away with it in fine style, winning the movie vote for himself at the same time.

BIG AUTOMOBILE SHOW OPENS THIS AFTERNOON.

More than Two Hundred Pleasure Cars in Great Exhibition Which Commences Today—More than a Million-dollar Valuation Placed on Exhibits Alone—Pertinent Facts.

MANAGER CONWELL is promising to raise his hand and show about "Let 'er go" promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon. When he does, the greatest automobile and truck show ever staged in the West will be on. Hundreds of people are planning to attend the opening afternoon and the tents and buildings will be jammed to the ceiling.

COMPLETE.
One of the greatest beauties of the Winter Automobile Salon will be its completeness. Almost every well-known make of machine will be on display. The programme for the show, in fact, looks like a list of all the motor cars built in the world, each of these cars represented, sometimes five and six times over, the show will simply be one mass of marvelous machines.

Completeness, however, will be rivaled by several other factors.
The decorations, beauty of arrangement, and the up-to-date exhibitions. Manager J. S. Conwell's aspirations to this effect are backed up not only by the Executive Committee, H. L. Arnold, P. H. Greer and Ralph H. Cram, but by the show itself as it now stands. An inside view last night confirmed every assertion and left little doubt as to the tremendous success of the coming exposition.

FINISHING.
Scores of men worked all last night. There are always a lot of final touches and this show has not proved an exception. Displays were placed, changed, and rearranged.
Palms, shrubs and ferns were dragged around with reckless main-don and deposited in charming places. Dealers and their helpers were all around, bustling, directing and working at a thousand and one jobs.

The decorations of this show greatly surpass anything before attempted. The futuristic scheme has worked out better than the fondest hopes of the decorators and the black and white color effect gives an unusual and very pleasing effect. Individual booths are little wonder-lands with soft carpets, easy lounge chairs and beautiful potted plants. Each division of the show is better than the one before, and as for picking the winner in the actual displays, it would be utterly impossible.

OPENING.
The official opening will take place at 2 o'clock. This the committee guarantee, and they claim that everything will be ready by that time. On the very stroke of the hour bands will strike up, dealers will stand at their best smiles, salesmen will take another cough drop and prepare to talk themselves hoarse, the doors will open and it will be the greatest show of the season.
There will be speeches of welcome and dedication and there will be a lot of private felicitating on the part of all concerned.

The opening ceremonies will be very short and the automobiles themselves will immediately step into the center of the limelight and remain there until the end of the show.

Following are a few pertinent facts concerning the big automobile and truck show:

Location—Main, Pico and Los Angeles streets, main entrance Main street; side entrance, Pico street; truck show entrance, Main and Pico streets.

Open—Today at 2 p.m.; with inaugural ceremonies; tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 a.m.

A "HAPPY" CONFLICT

Peppery Dialogue Over the Correct Use of Spanish Idiom.

Don Jo de Chillepin, whose name boldly proclaims his intimacy with the language of the Hidalgo, writing in The Times on Sunday, October 22, on the misuse of Spanish words, took James M. Sheridan of this city to task for saying that "Los Feliz" school was grammatical.

The school around which the "conflict" raged, was recently erected at the junction of Vermont avenue and Hollywood boulevard, and "Senor Don de Chillepin" affirms that "Los Feliz" school is not a grammatical outrage, but correct, and that the outrage is in this connection: "In one of the most familiar idioms in Spanish, Mr. Sheridan had also condemned 'Los Felices' as grammatical." "Los Felices" is the similar "outrage," and in reply Senor Don de Chillepin said: "Los Felices is not a grammatical outrage, but correct, and that the outrage is in this connection: 'In one of the most familiar idioms in Spanish, Mr. Sheridan had also condemned 'Los Felices' as grammatical.' They get their name by the invariable Spanish grammar from the noted Felis Ranchito. And that got its name because it was the property of Mrs. and Mrs. Felis."

Mr. Sheridan comes back with a letter of his own which is reinforced by a letter to himself from Dr. Jur.
Stegener-Urburu. Both letters follow.

FROM MR. JAMES M. SHERIDAN.
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—(To the Editor of The Times.) The enclosed article from last Sunday's Times speaks for itself. The enclosed letter from Dr. Urburu to me is my translation of the original now in my possession.

I am not one of those who object to criticism, but I do object to it when it is unfair and intelligent; but I must say that my critic does not show very much of the polite of common courtesy. I could, of course, have answered for myself without imposing on the good nature of Dr. Urburu, but it occurred to me that the best way to dispose of the matter was to let the opinion of a recognized authority on the Spanish language, whose scholarship is in-questioned, speak for itself, and thereby end the matter.

"Felis" is so rare as a proper name that not even Dr. Urburu, whose native language is the Spanish language, could make out what the name stood for. I think this fact in itself finally disposes of the contention of my critic that "Los Felis" is an idiomatic and therefore, correct I have studied the Spanish language for some sixteen years, during eight years of which I served the United States government in the Philippines and in Washington as an official translator.

I do not wish to impose further on your time. Accepting the explanation given by my critic, I think "Felis" is a proper name, then the school should be named "The Felis school" or "Felis school." Outside of these names, there is a school known as "Micheltorena school." That is entirely correct, and I would have been correct to say "the Micheltorena school." But Dr. Urburu has disposed of this matter by saying that "Los Felis" school is not correct, does not sound correct, and is not found in a Spanish dictionary. "It is not Spanish at all."

In the light of the publicity that has been given to what my critic has had to say, may I ask that you do me the great courtesy to give this matter the same publicity?
My sole purpose in calling attention to the matter at all is because the name, as it stands, is an outrage to the language, and I feel that it should not be allowed to remain on the face of an educational institution, and no man in my opinion for the romantic and inspiring history of this splendid community should be allowed to remain on the face of an educational institution.
You are aware, of course, that the who are in a position to remedy this. Nor do I think that there is any one in this city in a position to do this in taking such a stand.

Faithfully yours,
JAMES M. SHERIDAN.
DR. URIBURU TO MR. SHERIDAN.
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—My Esteemed Friend: I have read with great interest your letter of the 24th and the newspaper clipping that accompanied it in the controversy about the phrase, "Los Felis school."

It is entirely unnecessary to enter into any discussion about Spanish grammar for the simple reason that in the form in which it appears it is not Spanish at all!

I, and many others who are familiar with the Spanish language, on passing the school bearing this name, have laughed more than once at the combination of words, and have been utterly unable to make out what it meant. It would seem, therefore, that this name is merely a translation, and into very bad Spanish at that.

You are aware, of course, that the language is spoken, there have been charitable souls who have endowed schools, and among these married people who have done the same as the Felis family did in this case; but no one ever dreamed of naming a school, "Escuela Los Urburu," while, on the contrary, there is a school known as "Escuela Los Urburu." The academy permits, in familiar usage, "in casa de los Urburu," and it is not correct to say "in casa de la familia de Urburu." There are endowments made by husband and wife and named "Donado por los Espinos Urburu," etc.

If this be a translation of the phrase, "Escuela Los Felis," then it is not correct, does not sound correct, and is not found in a Spanish dictionary. You can imagine for yourself, therefore, what the translation would be.

All the rules cited by your critic, which are the indisputable rules of the Spanish language, have about as much to do with this case as I have with the moon.

Sincerely your friend, (Signed) J. ZIEGLER-URIBURU.

geles, Cal.

WAGE A REVOLVER DUEL ON STREETS.

OFFICER DISCOVERS BURGLAR AND BATTLE ENSUES.

After Exchange of Many Shots Bandit Flees, Firing as He Runs, and Makes His Escape, Despite Hot Pursuit Through Lodging-houses.

Sunrise yesterday morning broke on a revolver duel that swept Main street of pedestrians. It was waged between Patrolman Croft and an unknown burglar.

While walking his beat Patrolman Croft saw outlined in the early-morning dimness the figure of a man with a bar in his hands, attempting to batter down the lock to a door of a saloon at No. 113 East Third street.

The burglar dropped the bar and crouched in the shadow of the doorway.

Next came the flash of a revolver shot. Croft's cap fell. A second shot walked. The burglar had knocked it off with a bullet.

Croft raised the fire, until both men had emptied their weapons.
Another bullet had punctured the coat sleeve of the policeman. His slugs, in turn, had shown over the door of the saloon before which the burglar crouched.

Then he turned to the sidewalk. The burglar fired six shots the burglar ran to Main street and turned south. Croft was after him.
Both retained their weapons as they ran.

The fugitive halted at intervals to take shots at the policeman. Croft continued to pump lead at the fleeing figure. The burglar was the better runner. He continued to increase his lead. By the time he reached Sixth street he was 100 yards in advance.

Then he turned to the left, and it is supposed he entered one of the lodging-houses along the street, ran to the roof and escaped over the top of adjoining buildings.

Committee in Charge of Broadway Flower and House Beautiful Display Reports Big Demand for Room—Carpenters and Decorators Start Work.

With a large force of carpenters and decorators at work, the 40,000 feet of floor space in the Old Boston Store Building, opposite the City Hall, is being rapidly transformed into booths for the housing of the big exhibits of the Broadway Flower and House Beautiful Show, which will be thrown open to the public Tuesday.

With rivalry at a white heat between gardeners, both amateur, professional and commercial, considerable secrecy surrounds the individual exhibits to be made in the floral section. But with every foot of the floor space apportioned to flowers taken weeks in advance, and many hundred waiters for exhibit space, the success of the show is certainly in fact, members of the committee in charge say that it will include the finest showing of flowers ever seen under one roof on the Pacific Coast.

In the House Beautiful section, entirely new and different from variety, with all the larger furnishing houses represented. Among others, the William B. Allen Company will show a Mason & Hamlin grand piano, with dual bench to match, in one corner of a living room, while on the other side will be an art-style Victrola, hand carved and with gold trimmings. In the display by the New Yamato, Inc., will be novelty baskets from the Orient, lace work baskets and trays, beautifully painted with California flowers in oil, as well as Chinese embroideries, Japanese tea tables, etc.

DECLARATION.

Contracts of Eight Packing Companies are Defective, Says Judge.
Who Refuses Them Relief
They Asked for—Fishermen are Not Healed.

Holding that the contracts of the eight tuna packing companies which sought to restrain the Halfhill tuna Packing Company from buying fish from fishermen under contract to the former, were defective and did not entitle them to the relief asked for, Judge Welborn yesterday denied the injunction.

The court pointed out the eight packers were in effect asking to be held that nearly 300 fishermen could sell only to the eight companies, without giving the fishermen an opportunity to be heard.

The result is a great victory for the Halfhill concern, which has been not subject to contract until they were caught. The right of the big packers to come into court seeking relief because most of the fishermen fishing for them were Japanese and therefore not entitled to fish in American waters, however, did not pass on any of these issues.

TWO MORE ADDED TO CAPLAN TRIAL JURY.

THIS MAKES NINE SELECTED IN WEEK'S WORK.

Examine Fifteen Men in Day's Proceedings and Hope to Complete the Body this Morning.
But Two More Challenges Left Out of Twenty for Prosecution.

Only two peremptory challenges out of twenty were left the prosecution attorneys in the trial of David Caplan, alleged dynamiter, when the case terminated for the day and it is probable today the jury will be completed, two men having been added to the permanent list, making a total of nine selected in almost a week's work.

The new jurors are J. C. Bear, a retired restaurant man now residing at No. 107 North Bushnell street, Alhambra, and George M. Brown of No. 2413 Western avenue, Lynham.
J. Stewart of the Union Oil Company was called to the jury box in the new venire, but after brief examination was excused on the ground of poor health.

Fifteen men were examined during yesterday's proceedings. Only about twenty of the 100 men sought in the new venire were located by the sheriff's office and appeared when the court was called. Five of those expected to serve are taking the new venire when the officers called to serve them.

this morning. This will prove a record for such an important case. It required about three weeks to get the jury for the first Caplan trial and more time than that to secure the jury for the trial of Matthew A.
Schmidt, the convicted dynamiter, caught at the same time Caplan was apprehended.

CHEERS FOR HUGHES.

Spontaneous Outburst When Republican Candidate is Mentioned by Johnson, Who Lauds Standard-bearer for His Courage.

When Gov. Johnson at Trinity Auditorium last night mentioned the name of Charles Van Dine, the Republican standard-bearer, there was prolonged applause. While the majority of the crowd represented former Progressives, their enthusiasm for Hughes was a spontaneous outburst, and apparently as sincere as that of the Regular Republicans.

The auditorium was filled and applause was unbounded. The speaker refrained from national issues, but the exception of a few references to the tariff question and preparation. He eulogized Mr.
Hughes for his constructive work as Governor of New York, highly commended his fearlessness.

In speaking of his personal candidacy he said that if sent to Washington he will be governed by the same ideals of government that have guided him in his office as executive of California for six years.

An overflow crowd of several hundred waited until the speaker had finished his principal address when he gave them a short talk.
